

Mistaken
Written By Karissa Hoffart

You hurt me badly, I could not breathe,
I was mistaken somehow, you weren't for me,

Take me down that old dirt road,
Where I find you and tell you no,
You can put on a show for so long

I thought you were better than the rest of them,
But you're loves not true,
You said you were only just protecting me,
Why did I believe you,
You seemed right at the time,
All the stars were aligned,
But I was mistaken

You tried to control me,
Held me back from my dreams,
But it's all in the past now,
I'll rise up and be free

Take me down that old dirt road,
Where I find you and tell you no,
You can put on a show for so long

I thought you were better than the rest of them,
But you're loves not true,
You said you were only just protecting me,
Why did I believe you,

I was mistaken
I was mistaken

You seemed right at the time,
All the stars were aligned
But I was....

You thought I would be fine here,
Just stuck in your arms,
But you were mistaken

I thought you were better than the rest of them,
But you're loves not true,
You said you were only just protecting me,
Why did I believe you,
I thought you were better than the rest of them,
But you're loves not true,

You said you were only just protecting me,
Why did I believe you

You were Mistaken
You were Mistaken
