

Welcome To Country-Karissa Hoffart
Written By: Karissa Hoffart

City boy won't you come with me,
I'm gonna show you around,
If you want me.

Drivin' down the dirt road, nothin' to lose,
Gonna make this night last,
It's time to cruise.

Now I ain't about to move to the city,
So listen to what I've got to say...

Welcome to country,
What do you see,
Take a look around,
This is where I'm gonna be.
Welcome to country,
Look at this view,
Where the green grass grows,
And the skies so blue,
Welcome to country

We park the truck at my old farm,
To watch the sun set,
With me in your arms.

We're lyin' in the green grass,
Lookin' at the stars
Listenin' to the peace cause there ain't no cars.

Now I ain't about to move to the city,
So listen to what I've got to say...

Welcome to country,
What do you see,
Take a look around,
This is where I'm gonna be.
Welcome to country,
Look at this view,
Where the green grass grows,
And the skies so blue,
Welcome to country

I looked at him and he looked at me,
I couldn't believe what he said to me,
He said...

Welcome to country,
What do you see,
Take a look around,
And you'll find me.
Welcome to country,
I love it too,
I'm gonna stay,
Right here with you.

Welcome to country,
What do you see,
Take a look around,
This is where we're gonna be.
Welcome to country,
Look at this view,
Where the green grass grows,
And the skies so blue,
Welcome to country
Welcome to country
Welcome to country
