

She's Enough
Written By: Karissa Hoffart

As I look into the mirror
I find somebody new
I know I can feel the changes
She is strong and she is true
To her values and her passion
She is never gonna lose
That dream she's been dreamin'
Is gonna come true

She knows she's enough
Kind enough, tough enough
She knows she is strong
She is great, she is who she is today
Never change, who you are
See your worth and you'll go far
She's Enough
She needs to know that she's enough

All my scars have faded
Finally back to myself
It takes time and patience
To listen to yourself
Never doubt who you are
You have power and goodwill
They'll be struggles in your path
Find a voice that is still

She knows she's enough
Kind enough, tough enough
She knows she is strong
She is great, she is who she is today
Never change who you are
See your worth and you'll go far
She's Enough

In my heart I have found
The beauty in myself
I found a voice, I'll speak it loud
I am who I am, I'm proud

I am Enough, I am Enough

I know I'm enough
Kind enough, tough enough
I know I am strong
I am great, I am who I am today

I believe in me
And for that I will succeed

I am enough
I'll always know that I'm enough
This girl will always know that she's enough
